Monday September 4

9 am    Registration

10 am   Opening of the seminar Dr. Lucas Grosman, Rector of UdeSA
        Welcome speech by the co-chairs of the Research Group Justin Frosini and Ricardo Ramírez Calvo

10.30 am  Coffee break

11 am   Morning panel

Sara Pennicino – University of Padova, Italy and Center for Constitutional Studies and Democratic Development
        Why do Enfranchisement and Validation of Elections still represent a Challenge for Constitutionalism in 21st century?

Pablo Riberi – National University of Cordoba and Catholic University of Cordoba, Argentina
        The Awkward Reading of the Principle of Separation of Powers in Latin American Politics

Moderator: Manuel García-Mansilla- Austral University, Argentina

12 noon  Debate

12.45 pm  Lunch Break

2.45 pm   Afternoon panel

Carna Pistan – University of Udine, Italy and Center for Constitutional Studies and Democratic Development
        The Role of Constitutional Courts in the Promotion of Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe.

Sponsored by:

Poder Judicial de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires
Consejo de la Magistratura
Tuesday September 5

9.00 am  First panel

Justin Frosini – Bocconi University, Italy and Director of the Center for Constitutional Studies and Democratic Development
The Preambles of the Western Balkans: an Example of Illiberal Constitutionalism?

Patricio Nazareno – University of San Andres, Argentina
Exploring Alternative Constitutional Change in Argentina: Between transitional scenarios and the popular/democratic influx

Moderator: Ricardo Ramirez Calvo – University of San Andres, Argentina

10.00 am  Debate

10.45 am  Coffee Break

11.15 am  Second panel

Martín D. Farrell - University of San Andres, Argentina
Carl Schmitt’s Decisionism

Ricardo Ramírez Calvo - University of San Andres, Argentina
Authoritarianism and Legal Theory

Moderator: Sebastián Elías – University of San Andres, Argentina

12.15 pm  Debate

1 pm  Lunch break
3 pm  Closing conference
Carlos Rosenkrantz - Justice of the Argentine Federal Supreme Court

3.45 pm  Closing words by the co-chairs of the Research Group